

58+/- acres in Randolph County, Alabama

PRICE REDUCED! Here is your chance to own a rare and beautiful tract in Randolph County, AL! This tract is a true untouched gem, full of big majestic hardwoods. These large hardwoods cover most of the tract and consist of a good variety of hardwoods including large amounts of big white oaks scattered across the property. There are also a few stands of large pines, as well as some smaller pines in select areas as well. This diverse and fruitful habitat creates a haven for wildlife where deer and turkeys are plentiful! Not only is this tract a superior hunting/recreation tract, it also offers several homesites to build your custom built home on this one of a kind property. This tract is ready to enjoy with power and water readily available and easy to access on a paved county road.

This tract is located approximately 3 miles outside of Roanoke with Wedowee and Woodland nearby. It would be approximately 45 minutes North of Auburn and an hour and a half from Atlanta, Birmingham and Montgomery. Reach out to Luke Rice or Spencer Loveless to see this great tract today!
