

77.56+/- acres in Taylor County, Florida

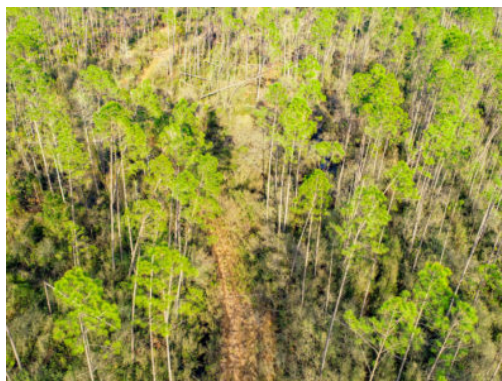

Total seclusion! Get away from it all with this great 77.5-ac +/- combination timberland investment and recreational/hunting property in Taylor Co., FL! If you're looking for privacy, this is the place! Get ready to experience the freedom and solitude of the great outdoors.

Approximately 42 acres of mature planted pine on the property can be harvested at any time by the new owner. The property has a good internal road system, great for riding ATVs. The land is surrounded by large landowners for privacy. For sportsman, you'll be able to target whitetail deer, wild turkeys, ducks, hogs and more to build memories with family and friends, and to fill your freezer. If 77.5 acres is not enough land, you can join one of the local hunting clubs with access to thousands of acres and use this land as a home base. Also, adjacent properties are for sale as well to build a bigger investment.

Enjoy a growing timber investment, hunting opportunities, and the peace and beauty of North Florida's native landscape. Give us a call today.
