

40+/- acres in Coosa County, Alabama

Affordable hunting and timber investment tract!

This 40 +/- acre property is conveniently located less than one mile from Hwy 280, in the Hatchet community of Coosa County, Alabama. County Rd 111 crosses the property, providing easy access. The timber on the property was harvested 2 to 3 years ago and is now regrowing with hardwood and pine timber. It could be left to grow for a future return on investment, or cleared for pasture, food plots, and/or an off-grid home/camp site. The property is surrounded by large tracts of timberland in an area known for great deer and turkey hunting. Tracts of this size and price range typically do not last long, so contact Dent Stallworth or Brian Watts today to learn more about this property.
